Description of local area

Located in the heart of Boston's Fenway Colleges Complex, Wentworth offers all the excitement of city life while maintaining a strong sense of community within its beautiful 35-acre campus, which surrounds a treelined quad and traditional New England buildings. When it's time to unwind, the opportunities are plentiful. An excellent public transport system, with two lines that stop virtually at Wentworth's front door makes it easy for students to enjoy the city and its attractions. World-class museums, an array of shopping and social venues and national sports arenas like the TD Banknorth Garden and Fenway Park are all just a short walk or subway ride away.
