General English

Daily Teaching Sessions

Morning: 4 x 45 minutes (3 Hours)

Afternoon: 3 x 45 minutes (2 Hour 15 mins)

Course Aims

These intensive courses involve small-group teaching of General English (not all participants are teachers), allowing concentrated study of General English with special reference to practical communication skills and comprehension of native speakers (giving maximum opportunity for success in conversation).

Lessons are based on an oral approach to language learning; reading and writing are used in a supportive role where necessary. We include a strong element to 'reactivate' the learner's knowledge of the essential structures of the language.

Full use is made of audio-visual resources and modern teaching methods. Each class sees more than one teacher a day to ensure a contrast of accent, delivery and approach. Courses are in modules with course start dates arranged to balance academic control with flexibility of arrival. (During July and August, some classes may be held at our Summer Annexe).

Preparation

Consideration of participant's language needs in an adult context. On-line pre-test. Advice on pre-course language preparation.

Objectives

This course is aimed at non-native speakers of English. The intention is to equip those working with English in their own environment with key language and communication skills appropriate to educational, social and vocational contexts.

Methodology

Lessons are based on an oral communicative approach to language learning; reading and writing are used only in a supportive role where appropriate. Full use is made of audio-visual resources and modern teaching methods.

Follow-up

Participants receive advice on continuing their language learning after the course, and have email access to a Richard Language College tutor.
